It was a wonderful day
and in the princess kingdom it was all like fairy tale.

Princess was sitting on her throne and the guards took care of the diamonds and gold in which the villains and the elves have been helped.

Suddenly the chaos of the kingdom broke out when the kite suddenly appeared with a wicked wizard on his back. First they attacked soldiers and elves, then captured and took the princess to his dark yard.

When the soldiers came to consciousness, they gathered as many people as possible and went to look for a princess.

When they found her in the dark courtyards, they beat the dragon and the evil wizard and brought the princess back to the throne.

BOOM!
